With reference to the endorsements appearing on the attached report relating to the affairs of S.R. Price, American, I have to state that lengthy enquiries have failed to establish anything of an absolute concrete nature in connection with the gambling activities of this individual. He has, however, been heard to remark in certain quarters recently that during the Chinese New Year he intends to give several big 'parties' during the course of which he expects to "make big money." The location of these parties has not yet been discovered, but should anything be ascertained in this connection, a further report will be immediately submitted.

Information was recently received to the effect that Stewart R. PRICE, American, well-known gambling organiser in Shanghai, was acting as the Shanghai representative of Garcia of "wheel" fame. It is reported that Garcia is at present in Japan and wishes to return to Shanghai, but is rather afraid that should he attempt to enter via this port by steamer he will receive the same treatment that was meted out to Paul Crawley, who upon his return from the United States was detained by the Chinese Authorities and later deported.

Price, who resides at Apartment No. 737 Cathay Hotel, is known to be the silent head of a gambling syndicate operating locally, and no attempts are made to disguise the fact that he is connected with gamblers, among the staff of the Cathay Hotel. Price has been residing on and off at this hotel for about two years and a half and periodically makes trips on business to America, Japan, the Philippines and Macao.

He receives practically no visitors at the Cathay but he is known to leave the premises very frequently at night time for addresses in the Western district. When he does this he is in the habit of employing Ford Hire Service cars.

He has no legitimate business locally but is known to be well furnished with money.

With reference to the attached note from D.C. (Crime) I respectfully beg to report that according to information received Mr. Stewart Price is at present at Washington, where he is lobbying with a view to securing the removal from the U.S. Court for China of Judge M.D. Purdy, the present judge, and to transferring in his place of Judge Lobinger, a former judge of the U.S. Court for China.

In connection with the above information enquiries have been made at the local Consulate-General for U.S.A. and it has been learned that the aforesaid Consulate was aware of the fact that S. Price is at present in Washington. As regards the rumour that S. Price had financed the Ezras in their activities nothing definite can be gleaned.

Sir,

Further inquiries indicate that Price was called to the American Consulate and informed that as the Police were tightening the ring round foreign gambling it would be expedient for him to clear out in time as his arrest would lead to innumerable compromising disclosures involving the American Community.
